

LOUISVILLE, MISS.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 27, 1842.

Our patrons must bear with us yet a little longer, for having such a small quantity of reading matter, as we are under the necessity of putting more advertisements in our paper than we should, if we had a sufficient quantity of type, not in pi, to couch the most of them in our extra.

ERRATA.

We are informed that we were in error last week, in stating that Burgon was hailed before he was shot; we made the whole statement as it was related to us.

Tyler has vetoed the big tariff bill; go it my Tyler, veto every bill they pass, and show them that they have in reality "waked up the wrong passenger."

STATE TELEGRAPH.

We have received the first number of a new paper published at the city of Jackson, in this State, under the above title, conducted by J. T. Summers Esq., favorably known as the editor of the Lexington Union. The Telegraph is a Democratic paper, and we have no doubt but it will be ably edited. We wish it success.

Dyott's Oracle of Health.—We have received some three or four numbers of this valuable publication, and from a careful perusal, we can freely recommend it to the public. The "Oracle of Health" is an interesting medical work, published monthly at Philadelphia, Pa. by the celebrated Doctor Dyott, at the low price of TWENTY-FIVE cts. per annum.

We understand that Mr. S. Rohrer has taken charge, temporarily, of the Aberdeen Advertiser.

SUMMER AMUSEMENTS.

Our friends from every direction are complaining of the dullness of the times, the want of amusement &c.

We advise all such as are in search of rural sport and innocent amusement, to pay our delightful village a visit, and see how the boys do the thing in this part of our "moral vineyard." In the first place, we have a delightful and healthy climate—plenty to eat, and plenty to eat with it. And as for amusement, we give the following as an unfair specimen: We are blessed with a set of the finest sort of fellows, who, when ever they think proper, ride out to a mineral spring, (and as the road is very fine, those of them who are minus a horse, can go out by private conveyance,) where they amuse themselves by eating peaches, and swinging on a gray-vine. In town they meet in a certain alley, set a part expressly for the business, and hustle up a deck and take a social, friendly game of marvels, and all passes off in perfect harmony; and we are delighted to learn that a proposition has been made, to introduce other innocent games, such as cat, chumbley, prisoner's base &c., which will add greatly to the store of amusements.

SNAKE TALE.

We notice an account in the Columbus Democrat of last week, of a snake said to have been captured in this County, rather on the large order, measuring seven feet five inches in length, circumference a little more than a foot, having thirty-eight rattles, and measuring between three and four inches between the eyes. Now we frankly acknowledge that we have heard of no such animal in the snake line being killed in this county, very recently; but we were present not long since, and heard one of our most respectable citizens relate a snake tale, that bears that of our friend of the Democrat, a little. The snake of our informant measured twelve feet in length, had thirty-nine rattles, and was six inches between the eyes, the circumference of his snake-ship we did not learn, but we presume it was in proportion.

We can beat our friend in snakes, but he can beat us in boots. His best weighs twenty-three pounds, and measures four feet 6 1-2 inches in circumference. We have not a word to say—our devil says he won't believe neither of our snake-tales now.

Alabama money was rated in N. York on the 27th ult.—Decatur 38 per cent. discount; other banks 45—Miss. Advertiser.

The Tennessee banks continue to pay specie on their respective issues. ib.

Good.—General Houston, the hero of San Jacinto, has actually and truly become a tee-totaller. It was high time, and we are rejoiced at his reformation. Everybody always said of him, "He's a d—d fine fellow—pity he drinks!"—N. Y. Aurora.

THE PUBLIC LANDS.

For the last eight years the proceeds of the Land sales have been as follows:—

In 1833	$4,972,000
" '34	6,099,000
" '35	15,999,000
" '36	25,167,000
" '37	7,000,000
" '38	4,305,000
" '39	6,461,000
" '40	2,252,000

The whole amount for the eight years, being more than $72,000,000, or an average of $9,000,000 per annum.

The Canadian patriots are trying to kick up another spree in Canada.

The New York Aurora of the 4th inst. says: That a meeting was held a short time since in Detroit, at which several of the old patriots and leaders were present. Better hunt up Gov. Dorr and that sword! They would be an invaluable acquisition to the patriot forces.

The New York Journal of Commerce says: The freight of a barrel of flour from that city to Boston, Newburyport, or Portland is 10 a 12 1-2 cents; while the postage on a letter to either of those places is 18 3-4 cents.

RELIGIOUS MELANCHOLY.

Many persons of a religious turn of mind behave as if they thought it a crime to be cheerful. They imagine the whole of religion consists in certain mortifications, or denying themselves the smallest indulgence, even of the most innocent amusements. A perpetual gloom hangs over their countenances, while the deepest melancholy preys upon their minds. At length the fairest prospects vanish, every thing puts on a dismal appearance, and those very objects which ought to give delight, afford nothing but disgust. Life itself becomes a burden, and the unhappy wretch, persuaded that no evil can equal what he feels, often puts an end to his miserable existence.

It is a great pity that ever religion should be so far perverted, as to become the cause of those very evils it was designed to cure. Nothing can be better calculated than true Religion, to raise and support the mind of its votaries under every affliction that can befall them. It teaches men that even the sufferings of this life are preparatory to the happiness of the next, and that all who persist in a course of virtue shall at length arrive at complete felicity.

Persons whose business it is, to recommend religion to others, should beware of dwelling too much on gloomy subjects. That peace and tranquility of mind, which true religion is calculated to inspire, is a more powerful argument in its favor than all the terrors that can be uttered.—Terror may indeed deter men from outward acts of wickedness, but can never inspire them with that love of God and real goodness of heart, in which alone true religion consists.

To conclude; the best way to counteract the violence of any passion is to keep the mind closely engaged in some useful pursuit.—Dyott's Oracle of Health.

THE PUFF BALL.—The Picayune thus notices a newly appointed corner, out there in "them diggings."

Our friend Hale, of the Platner's Gazette, has been appointed Corner of the Parish of Iberville. We recommend all those who intend in these hard times to shuffle off their mortal coil, as well as those who have made up their minds to drown themselves accidentally, to perform these operations in the neighborhood of Plaquemine, or, in other words, to patronize Mr. H. Engineers of steamboats, having blowing up to do, will please burst their boilers in that immediate section. Fine inquests, "no blame attached" to any one, and all that sort of thing.

"Hallo!" roared a jocos steamboat passenger, going into a stranger's berth and giving him a tremendous shake.

"Hallo! don't you want to go ashore at Memphis?"

"Yes, yes, to be sure!" said the man, jumping up and dragging on his boots with desperate speed, for the bell was then ringing loudly.

"Well, we're just at Natchez now," replied the other, "I thought I'd let you know." He then coolly closed the door and walked off.—Picayune.

Here is a little fact, says the Boston Post, which speaks volumes in relation to the character of the American people and their institutions:—

"John Moore, the Democratic candidate for the office of Lieut. Governor of Illinois, made the very wagon in which his opponent, Henderson, the whig candidate rides about."
